

Chapter VIII

Science of Genealogy

The Science and study of genealogy deals with the history of one's family pedigree. In reality, it is an accounting of the descent of a person, from a family group, then from a still older original ancestor, as far back as one can document. The dictionary adds the following four words to the definition: "or from older forms." The latter words suggests that the genealogy of humans may be traced back to non-human forms or animals. This question and issue has been dealt with in previous chapters and this writer stands on the premise that the scientific evidence strongly demands a finding that the descent of humans, is always only from other humans. That any alleged missing links just never ever existed.

Under the Ancient Document Rule, the following genealogy of "Adam to Braswell," is presumed to be true. Documents found in their customary location, more than 40 years old, always have a presumption of truth. Those seeking to disprove papers of this type under the law, have the burden of proof.

In addition, family genealogies as to one's pedigree is also presumed to be true. Those who study and keep up with family records, in setting forth the members of one's family tree are, in law, presumed to have set forth correct recordation in tracing back toward one's proper ancestry. The burden of proof again is on the party seeking to challenge one's ancestry. This writer is indebted to many parties, in aiding in the establishment of the suggested "Adam to Braswell," connecting links, of pedigree documentation set forth herein, and, which follows.

SOURCES OF INFORMATION AND VERIFICATION AS TO GENEALOGY ON THE PRECEDING PAGES OF
"ADAM TO BRASWELL"

A. Nos. 1-113.

Documents and sources were provided to me by Bates Block, attorney, and former State President of the Georgia Genealogical Society. The "Royalty Charts" was compiled for Lillie Belle O'Donnell, by Claudia Yewell Lindley, October 27, 1933.

Nos. 1-67 were found in the Bible. Nos. 1-102 were taken from chart compiled by Archibald F. Bennett, M.E., for the Genealogical Society of Utah. Nos. 93-99 were found in the book, Charles the Great, by Mombert. Genealogical table shows the descent and family of Charles the Great. Nos. 103-114 were found in, A Shorter History of England, by A. F. Cross. Other information included in this chart, but not all included in my genealogy was derived from the Dictionary of National Biography, Burks Genealogical Heraldic Dictionary and The Abridged Compendium of American Genealogy, Vols. I, II, III, IV and V. References were from the Library of the Institute of American Genealogy in Chicago, Illinois.

B.Nos. 107-126.

Derived from "Table No. 1, Hadley Lines of Descent from the Plantagenets, DeVeres, Hungerfords, Courtenays and other Noble English Families, through Philipia Audley," which was provided to me, by Dr. Zenobia T. Lyles, college professor and genealogist which information was given to her by letter from Mrs. Ollar on February 22, 1967. Additional information about the Hadley family can be found in Hinshaws Encyclopedia of Quaker Genealogy;

C. No. 127.

Derived from excerpts from Lindley genealogy furnished to me by Dr. Lyles, which source was generally the Encyclopedia of Quaker Genealogy, Vol. 1, which can be found in the State Archives.

D.Nos. 128-130.

Provided to me by information obtained in the early 1930's by my mother, Corrine Smith Deen, securing data as an applicant for membership in the Daughters of the American Revolution, which information was copied from the Pension Files in the Pension Office of the Revolutionary War of 1775-83 in Washington D. C.

E.Nos. 131-133

Derived from the Smith Family Bible.
